

The United States moves this Court to withdraw James Dingivan as an attorney of record in this matter, as he left the United States Attorney’s Office on January 5, 2024. The remaining counsel of record for the United States will continue representing the United States in this litigation.

Accordingly, the United States respectfully requests that the Court grant this request and the Court's docket reflect that James Dingivan is no longer an attorney of record for the United States in this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
